Information from Tony Sacco about FTiH Programme and where we are now.

As part of the process of keeping people up to date and to encourage sharing of information between partnerships there will be a short regular update under the title "Partnership Matters".

The first edition is available from the table if you would like to read it.

There is a sheet on the table with all areas that you can help in. Please take a look, you don't have to be trained , just a willing helper.

We have to work as a Partnership but need volunteers to help us set it up. Parish Rep is Tim Rochester .
