Dear Fathers and Deacons,

I emailed you last week mentioning that we were looking to have 'pilot churches' in the diocese that would be ready to be open for private prayer when the Government restrictions are lifted.

The plan is that the five churches listed below, one from each Vicariate, would open as soon as is practicable following all necessary risk assessment and health and safety considerations. Then, hopefully, after a short trial period others would follow.

- St Aidan's, Ashington
- St Mary's Cathedral, Newcastle
- St Patrick's, Consett
- St Mary's, Sunderland
- St Joseph's, Hartlepool

I would like to thank the Parish Priests of the five churches for their generous cooperation in preparing their churches for safe opening.

With every good wish and blessing

Rt Rev Robert Byrne CO

Bishop of Hexham and Newcastle

St William of York - William Fitzherbert, a man of noble birth and relative of King Stephen, was elected to the see of York in 1140. His appointment was opposed by the Yorkshire Cistercians and the dispute went to Rome and the Pope eventually ruled in favour of William, who was consecrated in 1143. The opposition continued and he was deposed in 1147. He retired to Winchester, where for six years led a Monastic life. During that time his opponents died and with the Pope's blessing returned to York. In triumph. After a few months he died. The Pope asked the Cistercians abbots of Fountains & Rievaulx to look into his life and he was canonised eventually in 1226.

THE HOLY FATHER asks for your help in reaching out to our poorest brothers and sisters throughout the world. Through his charity, MISSIO, he has contacted us to see if we are able to help him to show God's love to His people. If you do, then please send a cheque to COVID-19 Response, 23 Eccleston Square, London, SW1V 1NU, or ask them to send you the forms so that they can claim GIFTAID as well. Whatever you can give it will be more than these poor people have. Thank you, keep safe and God bless you. Fr. Greg Price,
Diocesan Director of MISSIO.
