We have had queries about paying our weekly / monthly offering during lock down. If you have been putting money in the envelopes in cash or cheque (made out to St William's) we can arrange for them to be picked up or if you would like to pay by standing order thro the bank please contact me on the above phone number or thro facebook or email and details will be given. Thanks to those who have sent in donations to Dave Lye.

We have £105 coming in per month from Standing Orders - thank you for those.

Take care - stay safe . Anne Robinson.

Margaret Loughlin and family would like to thank those who met them at the Crem for John's funeral and for all the cards and good wishes sent to them.

STAY SAFE EVERYONE - REMEMBER THE VIRUS IS STILL OUT THERE SOMEWHERE AND WE DON'T KNOW WHERE OR WHEN IT WILL HIT.

We hope the children who have gone back to school have enjoyed the new experience and hope those going back this week do the same.

We have to remember all the teachers and school staff who have and are working so hard to keep everyone safe.

Re—opening of Churches
Bishop Robert Byrne CO has announced the re-opening of a further 20 Churches for Private Prayer only.
St Augustine's being one of them in Darlington.
A list of all Churches is on the Diocesan Website .
rcdhn.org.uk
VOLUNTEERS ARE NEEDED BEFORE CHURCHES CAN OPEN

The Diocese will provide training so we await further developments. Further information regarding dates and times and special measures will be issued in the future.

Due to social distancing measurers , there will be a limited capacity for each church. Should the maximum capacity be met a queueing system will have to be put in place outside church.

If you go to the Diocesan website you can download the handbook and other information regarding the future opening of Church premises.

PLEASE SEE ATTACHED FORM IF YOU CAN OFFER HELP, OR YOU KNOW ANYONE WHO DOES'T SEE THE NEWSLETTER, TO LET CHURCHES REOPEN
