WE ARE STILL ASKED TO FOLLOW SOME RULES

COVID Symptoms; people showing any should stay at home.
VACCINATIONS; are the best way to control the spread of Covid. We can show that we care for each other by getting vaccinated and attending for the booster dose when available.
VENTILATION; it is still important to ventilate our buildings. This has the effect of diluting and dispersing viral particles.
HAND SANITISER; should still be available for People as they enter and leave the building.
FACE COVERINGS; those who wish to wear a face covering may do so during the celebration of Mass . The same would also apply to those attending our halls and meeting places.
SOCIAL DISTANCING; there is no requirement for Social distancing but we should continue to be sensitive to the wishes of other people.

It is important that we continue to be mindful of our Local prevailing conditions in terms of viral infection and transmission and local adaptions should be put in place.

Reflection from Bishop Robert Byrne on the forthcoming Jubilee of Her Majesty the Queen

"We are beginning a week in which the country, the Commonwealth and others around the world will celebrate and commemorate the Platinum Jubilee of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth, the longest serving monarch - at 70 years and counting - that this country has ever had. During that time, she has served the citizens of our nations, bringing her own deep Christian faith to bear as Head of State of the United Kingdom and 15 other commonwealth countries. Many of the latter make up our own faith community here in Hexham and Newcastle. Our Queen sets great store by living her Christian faith through what she does every day and follows Christ's own example as 'servant king' - willing to sacrifice self in the pursuit of a higher purpose. This is a purpose that helps sustain our communities and wider society, and indeed our own faith as Christians. Throughout her reign, both she and Prince Philip sought to promote understanding and tolerance of different faiths, helping in turn make us a more stable society. She deserves our thanks and deep respect for that. In more recent times, many of us will have seen the dignity with which she dealt with the troubles and challenges within her own family - particularly following the death of her husband Prince Philip. Few will forget the picture of her alone at his funeral service at St. George's in Windsor. Again, it is her faith that stands both at the core of service as monarch, but also as a head of a family.
She once observed - in her 2011 Christmas broadcast - that "forgiveness lies at the heart of the Christian faith. It can heal broken families". Words we might all reflect on as we approach what will rightly be a celebratory weekend, and as we come out of this challenging pandemic period. Things that are broken - in ourselves, our communities and in our country now need time and effort to heal. She has been a consistent role model for us all, in how we should strive for the better, and for the glory of God.

We pray this weekend for the Queen and thank her for her long and faithful service to us all
